Dear Parents,

“Adventure is worthwhile.” – Aesop

A school excursion is an invaluable experience for the holistic development of children. It provides them with opportunities to explore different cultures, engage in team-building exercises, and problem-solving tasks, and develop essential life skills. We are thrilled to announce that the school is organizing a 4-day and 3-night excursion to Dharamshala/McLeod Ganj, commencing on June 02, 2024.

The excursion aims to offer students an enriching experience amidst the serene beauty of Dharamshala and McLeod Ganj. It will be packed with adventurous activities, cultural exploration, and opportunities for personal growth.
